12:30 HYMN—

The Son of God goes forth to war,
 A kingly crown to gain,
 His blood-red banner streams afar;
 Who follows in His train?
 Who best can drink his cup of woe,
 Triumphant over pain;
 Who patient bears his cross below—
 He follows in His train.
 That martyr first, whose eagle eye
 Could pierce beyond the grave—
 Who saw his Master in the sky,
 And called on Him to save,
 Like him, with pardon on his tongue,
 In midst of mortal pain,
 He prayed for them that did the wrong—
 Who follows in his train?

A noble band, the chosen few
 On whom the Spirit came;
 Twelve valiant saints—their hope they knew,
 And mocked the torch of flame.
 They met the tyrant's brandished steel,
 The lion's gory mane,
 They bowed their necks the stroke to feel—
 Who follows in their train?

A noble army—men and boys.
 The matron and the maid,
 Around the throne of God rejoice,
 In robes of light arrayed.
 They climbed the steep ascent of heaven,
 Through peril, toil and pain—
 O God, to us may grace be given
 To follow in their train!

HYMN—

Lead on, O King Eternal.
 The day of march has come;
 Henceforth in fields of conquest
 Thy tents shall be our home.
 Through days of preparation
 Thy grace has made us strong,
 And now, O King Eternal,
 We lift our battle song.

Lead on, O King Eternal.
 Till sin's fierce war shall cease,
 And holiness shall whisper
 The sweet amen of peace;
 For not with swords loud clashing,
 Nor roll of stirring drums;
 With deeds of love and mercy,
 The heavenly kingdom comes.

Lead on, O King Eternal,
 We follow, not with fears;
 For gladness breaks like morning
 Where'er Thy face appears;
 Thy cross is lifted o'er us;
 We journey in its light;
 The crown awaits the conquest;
 Lead on, O God of might.

 We have hard work to do, and loads to lift,
 Shun not the struggle, face it, 'tis God's gift.
 Be strong, be strong!

Say not the days are evil—who's to blame!
 And fold the hands and acquiesce—O shame!
 Stand up, speak out, and bravely, in God's name.
 Be strong, be strong!

It matters not how deep entrenched the wrong,
 How hard the battle goes, the day, how long;
 Faint not, fight on! Tomorrow comes the song.
 Be strong, be strong!

HYMN—

Jesus shall reign where'er the sun
 Doth his successive journeys run;
 His kingdom stretch from shore to shore,
 Till moons shall wax and wane no more.
 Blessings abound where'er He reigns;
 The prisoner leaps to lose his chains;
 The weary find eternal rest,
 And all the sons of want are blest.

Where He displays His healing power,
 Death and the curse are known no more;
 In Him the tribes of Adam boast
 More blessings than their father lost.
 Let every creature rise, and bring
 Its grateful honours to our King;
 Angels descend with songs again,
 And earth prolong the joyful strain.

These things shall be: a loftier race
 Than e'er the world hath known shall rise,
 With flame of freedom in their souls
 And light of knowledge in their eyes
 They shall be gentle, brave, and strong
 To spill no drop of blood, but dare
 All that may plant man's lordship firm
 On earth, and fire, and sea, and air.

Nation with nation, land with land,
 Unarmed shall live as comrades free;
 In every heart and brain shall throb
 The pulse of one fraternity.
 New arts shall bloom of loftier mould,
 And mightier music thrill the skies,
 And every life shall be a song,
 When all the earth is paradise.

Benediction

CONVENTION BUSINESS

HYMN—

New every morning is the love
 Our wakening and uprising prove;
 Through sleep and darkness safely brought,
 Restored to life, and power, and thought.

If on our daily course our mind
 Be set to hallow all we find,
 New treasures still of countless price
 God will provide for sacrifice.

New Mercies each returning day
 Hover around us while we pray;
 New perils past, new sins forgiven,
 New thoughts of God, new hopes of heaven.

The trivial round, the common task,
 Will furnish all we ought to ask;
 Room to deny ourselves; a road
 To bring us daily nearer God.

[9]

12:30 HYMN—

Onward, Christian Soldiers, marching as to war,
Looking unto Jesus, who is gone before!
Christ, the Royal Master, leads against the foe;
Forward into battle see His banner go.
Onward, Christian Soldiers, marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus, which is gone before!

Like a mighty army, moves the Church of God;
Brothers, we are treading where the saints have trod;
We are not divided, all one body we,
One in hope and doctrine, one in charity.

Crowns, and thrones may perish; kingdoms rise and wane,
But the Church of Jesus constant will remain;
Gates of hell can never 'gainst that Church prevail;
We have Christ's own promise, which can never fail.

Onward, then ye people, join our happy throng;
Blend with ours your voices in the triumph song.
Glory, laud and honour, men and angels sing,
Through the countless ages, unto Christ the King.

HYMN—

Strong Son of God, immortal Love,
Whom we, that have not seen Thy face,
By faith, and faith alone, embrace,
Believing where we cannot prove;

Our little systems have their day;
They have their day and cease to be;
They are but broken lights of Thee,
And Thou, O Lord, art more than they.

We have but faith: we cannot know;
For knowledge is of things we see;
And yet we trust it comes from Thee,
A beam in darkness: let it grow.

Let knowledge grow from more to more,
But more of reverence in us dwell;
That mind and soul, according well,
May make one music as before.

5:30 HYMN—

O Life that maketh all things new—
The blooming earth, the thoughts of men!
Our pilgrim feet, wet with Thy dew,
In gladness hither turn again.

One in the freedom of the truth,
One in the joy of paths untrod,
One in the soul's perennial youth,
One in the larger thought of God—

From hand to hand the greeting flows,
From eye to eye the signals run,
From heart to heart the bright hope glows;
The seekers of the Light are one.

The freer step, the fuller breath,
The wide horizon's grander view,
The sense of life that knows no death—
The Life that maketh all things new.

CLOSING HYMN—

Best be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Christian love;
The fellowship of kindred minds
Is like to that above.

Before our Father's throne
We pour our ardent prayers;
Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one,
Our comforts and our cares.

We share each other's woes,
Each other's burdens bear;
And often for each other flows
The sympathizing tear.

When for a while we part,
This thought will soothe our pain;
That we shall still be joined in heart,
And one day meet again.

Presiding—THE REVEREND BEN H. SPENCE

2:30 MUSIC DEVOTIONS HYMN—

Unto the hills around do I lift up
 My longing eyes,
 O whence for me shall my salvation come,
 From whence arise?
 From God the Lord doth come my certain aid,
 From God the Lord, who heaven and earth hath made.

He will not suffer that thy foot be moved:	Jehovah is Himself thy keeper true,
Safe shalt thou be.	Thy changeless shade;
No careless slumber shall His eyelids close,	Jehovah thy defense on thy right hand
Who keepeth thee.	Himself hath made.
Behold our God, the Lord, He slumbereth ne'er,	And thee no sun by day shall ever smite,
Who keepeth Israel in His holy care.	No moon shall harm thee in the silent night.

From every evil shall He keep thy soul,
 From every sin:
 Jehovah shall preserve thy going out,
 Thy coming in.
 Above thee watching, He whom we adore
 Shall keep thee henceforth yea, for evermore.

3:00 ADDRESS—The Fight Ahead—REV. F. SCOTT McBRIDE, D.D., Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Illinois, United States of America

3:30 ADDRESS—Organized Labor and Prohibition—HON. JOHN G. COOPER, Member of U. S. Congress and Member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, United States of America

HYMN—

Now to heaven our cry ascending,
 God speed the right!
 In a noble cause contending,
 God speed the right!
 May we live our lives before Thee.
 Like the good and great in story.
 If we fail we fail with glory.—
 God speed the right!

Patient, firm, and persevering,
 God speed the right!
 No event, or danger fearing,
 God speed the right!
 Pains, nor toils, nor trials heeding,
 Never from the truth receding,
 And in heaven's own time succeeding,
 God speed the right!

Still our onward course pursuing,
 God speed the right!
 Every foe at length subduing,
 God speed the right!
 Truth! thy cause, whate'er delay it,
 There's no power on earth can stay it,—
 Proudly let us then obey it,
 God speed the right!

4:30 P. M.

Pr. siding—THE REVEREND M. P. BOYNTON, D.D., Pastor of Woodland Park Baptist Church, Chicago

4 30 HYMN—

For all the saints who from their labors rest,
Who Thee by Faith before the world confessed.
Thy name, O Jesus, be forever blessed,
Alleluia!

Thou wast their rock, their fortress and their might,
Thou, Lord, their captain in the well fought fight,
Thou in the darkness drear their Light of light,
Alleluia!

O may thy soldiers, faithful, true and bold,
Fight as the saints who nobly fought of old,
And win with them the victor's crown of gold,
Alleluia!

And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
Steals on the ear the distant triumph song,
And hearts are brave again and arms are strong,
Alleluia!

But lo! There breaks a yet more glorious day,
The saints triumphant rise in bright array,
The King of Glory passes on His way,
Alleluia!

From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast,
Through gates of pearl streams in the countless host,
Singing to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
Alleluia!

When wilt Thou save the people?
O God of mercy, when!
Not kings alone, but nations!
Not thrones and crowns, but men!
Flowers of Thy heart, O God, are they;
Let them not pass, like weeds, away—
Their heritage a sunless day.
God save the people!

Shall crime bring crime for ever,
Strength aiding still the strong?
Is it Thy will, O Father,
That men shall toil for wrong?
"No," say Thy mountains; "No," Thy skies;
Man's clouded sun shall brightly rise,
And songs ascend instead of sighs,
God save the people!

When wilt Thou save the people?
O God of mercy, when?
The people, Lord, the people,
Not thrones and crowns, but men:
God save the people; Thine they are,
Thy children, as Thine angels fair;
From vice, oppression, and despair,
God save the people!

HYMN—

King of the city splendid,
Eternal in the height,
May all our country's cities
Be holy in Thy sight;
Cleansed from the deeds of darkness—
Cities of light.

Teach love to gladden children
Who know not childhood's mirth.
Wronged of their rights—no beauty
In their scant reach of earth:
To hope's large sunshine give them
A second birth.

Soon may our country's cities
Thy robe of glory wear:
Each place of toil a temple,
Each house a home of prayer;
Each city's name of beauty—
The Lord is There!

5:30 HYMN—

O sometimes gleams upon our sight
Through present wrong the eternal right,
And step by step, since time began,
We see the steady gain of man,—

Through the harsh noises of our day
A low, sweet prelude finds its way;
Through clouds of doubt and creeds of fear
A light is breaking calm and clear.

That all of good the past hath had
Remains to make our own time glad.
Our common, daily life divine,
And every land a Palestine.

Henceforth my heart shall sigh no more
For older time and holier shore;
God's love and blessing, then and there,
Are now and here and everywhere.

Faith of our fathers! holy faith!
We will be true to thee till death!

Our fathers, chained in prisons dark,
Were still in heart and conscience free;
How sweet would be their children's fate,
If they, like them, could die for thee!
Faith of our fathers! holy faith!
We will be true to thee till death!

Faith of our fathers! we will love
Both friend and foe in all our strife,
And preach thee too, as love knows how,
By kindly words and virtuous life.

Let there be light!

Thou, who didst come to bring
On Thy redeeming wing
Healing and sight,
Health to the sick in mind,
Sight to the inly blind,—
O now to all mankind
Let there be light!

Spirit of truth and love,
Life-giving, holy Dove,
Speed forth Thy flight;
Move on the waters' face,
Spreading the beams of grace,
And in earth's darkest place
Let there be light!

12:30 HYMN—

The fathers built this city
In ages long ago.
And busy in its busy streets,
They hurried to and fro;
The children played around them
And sang the songs of yore;
Fill, one by one, they fell asleep.
To work and play no more.

Yet still the city standeth,
A hive of toiling men,
And mother's love makes happy homes
For children now as then;
O, God of Ages, help us
Such citizens to be
That children's children here may sing
The songs of liberty.

A commonweal of brothers,
United, great and small,
Upon our banner blazon'd be
The charter "Each for all."
Nor let us cease from battle,
Nor weary sheathe the sword,
Until this city is become
The city of the Lord

Thy kingdom come—on bended knee
The passing ages pray;
And faithful souls have yearned to see
On earth that kingdom's day.

And lo! already on the hills
The flags of dawn appear;
Gird up your loins, ye prophetic souls,
Proclaim the day is near:

The day in whose clear-shining light
All wrong shall stand revealed,
When justice shall be clothed with might
And every hurt be healed:

When knowledge, hand in hand with peace,
Shall walk the earth abroad—
The day of perfect righteousness,
The promised day of God.

5:30 HYMN—

March on, march on, O ye soldiers true,
In the cross of Christ confiding,
For the field is set, and the hosts are met,
And the Lord His own is guiding.
Through earth's wide round, let the tidings sound,
Of the Lord who came from heaven;
Of the mighty hope, that with death can cope,
And the love so freely given.

We march to fight with the powers of night,
That have held the world in sorrow;
And the broken heart shall forget its smart,
And shall hail a joyful morrow.
We fight with wrong, and our weapon strong
Is the love which hate shall banish;
And the chains shall fall from each ransomed thrall
As the thrones of tyrants vanish.

Long wears the fight, but the God of right,
Though unseen, is ever near us;
And the prayers that rise to the listening skies
Like a song of hope shall cheer us.
Till the sunrise broad of the day of God
Shall declare the victor's glory,
And the world shall rest in her Lord confessed,
And shall sing the finished story.

Controlled and cleanly night and day;
That we may bring, if need arise
No maimed or worthless sacrifice.

Teach us to bear the yoke in youth,
With steadfastness and careful truth;
That, in our time, Thy grace may give
The truth whereby the nations live.

Teach us delight in simple things,

Forgiveness free of evil done,

Hail the glorious Golden City,
Pictured by the seers of old!
Everlasting light shines o'er it,
Wondrous tales of it are told:
Only righteous men and women
Dwell within its gleaming wall;
Wrong is banished from its borders
Justice reigns supreme o'er all.

We are builders of that city;
All our joys and all our groans
Help to rear its shining ramparts;
All our lives are living stones:
Whether humble or exalted,
All are called to task divine;
All must aid alike to carry
Forward our sublime design.

And the work that we have builded,
Oft with bleeding hands and tears,
And in error and in anguish,
Will not perish with our years:
It will last and shine transfigured
In the final reign of Right,
It will merge into the splendours
Of the City of the Light.

HYMN—

There's a light upon the mountains and the day is at the spring,
When our eyes shall see the beauty and the glory of the King:
Weary was our heart with waiting, and the night-watch seemed so long,
But His triumph-day is breaking and we hail it with a song.

In the fading of the starlight we may see the coming morn;
And the lights of men are paling in the splendours of the dawn:
For the eastern skies are glowing as with light of hidden fire,
And the hearts of men are stirring with the throbs of deep desire.

He is breaking down the barriers, He is casting up the way;
He is calling for his angels to build up the gates of day:
But His angels here are human, not the shining hosts above;
For the drum-beats of His army are the heart-beats of our love.

Ring out, wild bells, to the wild sky,	Ring out false pride in place and blood,
The flying cloud, the frosty light:	The civic slander and the spite;
The year is dying in the night;	Ring in the love of truth and right,
Ring out, wild bells, and let him die.	Ring in the common love of good.
Ring out a slowly dying cause	Ring out old shapes of foul disease;
And ancient forms of party strife;	Ring out the narrowing lust of gold;
Ring in the nobler modes of life,	Ring out the thousand wars of old,
With sweeter manners, purer laws.	Ring in the thousand years of peace.

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home:

Under the shadow of Thy throne,
Thy saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient is Thine arm alone,
And our defence is sure.

Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting Thou art God,
To endless years the same.

A thousand ages in Thy sight
Are like an evening gone,
Short as the watch that ends the night,
Before the rising sun.

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be Thou our guide while life shall last,
And our eternal home.

CLOSING HYMN—

Hark! the song of jubilee
Loud as mighty thunders' roar,
Or the fulness of the sea
When it breaks upon the shore.

Alleluia! for the Lord
God omnipotent shall reign;
Alleluia! let the word
Echo round the earth and main.

Alleluia! hark! the sound
From the depths unto the skies
Wakes, above, beneath, around,
All creation's harmonies.

See, Jehovah's banner's furled,
Sheathed His sword, He speaks—'tis done!
Now the kingdoms of this world
Are the kingdom of His Son.
